Heinzen begins his 14th season as head women's basketball coach at Loras College. During his tenure at the helm of the Duhawks, Heinzen has compiled an overall coaching record of 202-122 which includes 13-straight appearances in the American Rivers Conference tournament, formerly the Iowa Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

During the 2015-16 season, Heinzen led the Duhawks to their second trip to the NCAA Tournament in three seasons, winning the IIAC Tournament Championship over the No. 1-seed. In 2019-20, the Duhawks returned to the NCAA Tournament with their second-straight at-large bid and advanced to the Sweet 16 before the tournament was canceled due to COVID-19 health concerns. The Duhawks also posted a program-best record of 25-4 on the season.

Heinzen graduated from Wisconsin Lutheran in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in American History and a minor in political science. Today, the Manitowoc, Wis. native resides in Dubuque with his wife, Kristina, daughter, Paityn, and son, Brayden.

BRIT KENT
ASSISTANT COACH

Brit Kent begins her fifth season back at her alma mater as the primary assistant for the women's basketball program. Prior to returning to Loras, Kent was a two-year graduate assistant for the University of Wisconsin-Platteville women's basketball program. Her duties included direct oversight of all social media platforms, practice and game prep, recruiting, individual workouts, and film breakdown.

Following her playing career, Kent was a volunteer assistant coach for Justin Heinzen during the 2013-14 season in which Loras won the Iowa Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (IIAC) regular season and tournament championship, advancing to the NCAA Division III Tournament. During that season, Kent assisted with practice and game preparations, recruiting, and individual workouts.

Kent has more than five years of AAU coaching experience working with some elite athletes in the Iowa, Wisconsin, and Illinois areas. She has been a head coach for programs in Iowa and Wisconsin during her time in the AAU circuit. As a student-athlete at Loras, Kent was a three-year team captain and an All-Conference selection. She appeared in 106 games, averaging 7.4 points per game and was a 39.5 percent shooter from the floor.
